HAS THE "MELTING POT" FAILED?

The case of 22-year-old June Arill Terry, one of many American citizens of Japanese parentage, is a case to make all who believe in democracy stop and think.

Mrs. Terry was born and reared and educated in Martinez. When the Japanese were moved away from the coast she left with the others. Since then she has been officially adjudged loyal to the land of her birth and ordered by the Western Defense command to return to her home. But her high-strung, perhaps hyper-patriotic neighbors have made it thoroughly miserable for young June Terry, for her baby son and for her young husband, an oil company employee.

We have no information on the affair that has not been printed in the public press, but it appears to smack of intolerance in a degree reminiscent of the last World War. Signs posted around the Terry home saying, "No Japs wanted here. Move on!" are reminders of the days when Americans of German descent were ousted from their jobs and homes, when sauerkraut was re-named "liberty cabbage," when German-named stores and restaurants failed and school children whose names sounded Teutonic were hunted and stoned when they ventured out.

In the burning heat of their patriotism people often forgot in those times what democracy meant. And today, fairly or unfairly, Japanese are going to be highly unpopular people hereabouts for a long time to come.

There are many who sincerely believe that people of Japanese blood can never be good Americans. If that is true, then is that boasted American ability to meet, understand and make room for all other races a myth? Is the American melting pot a failure? Racially, the Chinese are as unassimilable as the Jap; yet there is no doubt they are exemplary citizens.

The main matter to be dealt with here and now is not nearly so complex. It is simply the matter of making very sure that Japanese or Germans or Italians among us have authoritative clearance as loyal Americans to be here—and then according them the same decent treatment that all good citizens have the right to expect.

This Month's STAR RECIPE

By BETTY BARCLAY

Soup season is with us and now that both the woman of the home and the man are toiling in factory or shipyard and eating only light, dry lunches, heavy healthful soups are in order.

For this month's Star recipe I have chosen one featuring a nourishing soup that requires no ration points to prepare—at least, not as I write. Milk, chicken, seasonings and egg noodles (one of the famous Energy Trio) are the only ingredients required. An ideal soup for the children's noon-day lunch, for the family dinner in the evening—or for both, if you wish.

Egg Noodles - Chicken Soup

Fall and winter is the "soup season". Here's a year-around soup and meat combination that youngsters will relish and oldsters will welcome.

1/2 lb. egg noodles
1 cup milk
1 stewing chicken
Salt and pepper

Cut chicken into desired portions. Place in cold water and bring slowly to a boil, skimming fat from stock. Boil till meat is tender. Remove chicken from pot; drain broth or stock to remove pieces of bone. Return boiled chicken and strained liquid to pot, add egg noodles and cook till tender. If desired, add milk for richness. Season to taste.

Julia tells How to cook macaroni and spaghetti

EVER HEAR OF "Mezzanelli"? Or "Forscini"? No, they're not opera singers.
Mezzanelli and foratini are simply sizes of macaroni—sizes you won't find on the labels of many packages. But if you did, you'd be able to prepare them just as you would spaghetti or any other size or shape of macaroni.

Because, believe it or not, all the various macaroni products (excepting noodles, which usually contain egg) are made of the same ingredients: flour, water, and salt. The size and shape (tubular, elbow, shells, etc.) simply add interest to their appearance.

And what real meals you can make with these foods! Consider that good old stand-by:

MACARONI AND CHEESE

1/2 lb. uncooked
macaroni 2 cups dry mustard
4 tbsp. shortening 2 cups milk
4 tbsp. enriched flour 1 1/2 cups grated cheese
1/2 tsp. salt

Cook macaroni in large amount of rapidly boiling salted water until tender; drain thoroughly. Melt shortening; blend in flour and seasonings. Add milk gradually; then add 1 cup of the cheese and cook until thick, stirring occasionally. Combine macaroni and cheese sauce in well-greased 1 1/2-qt. baking dish. Sprinkle with remaining 1/2-cup cheese. Bake in moderately hot oven (400° F.) until cheese is melted and well browned, about 30 minutes. Serves 6.

Incidentally, I've found that all macaroni products cook to better advantage uncovered, in plenty of water well salted—about 4 qts. of water and 1 tbsp. of salt for each 1/2-lb. of the macaroni. The water must be boiling hard—and you add the macaroni slowly so the boiling won't hesitate. Best kind of kettle to use is a wide and shallow one.

And here's another macaroni-product dish which meets with consistent favor in my home:

SPAGHETTI MARCO POLO

1/2 lb. uncooked
spaghetti 1 tsp. salt
2 heads garlic 1/2 tsp. pepper
2 tbsp. finely cut parsley 1/2 cup grated
7 tbsp. salad oil or shortening 3 cups cooked tomatoes

Cook spaghetti in large amount of rapidly boiling salted water until tender; drain thoroughly. Saute chopped garlic and parsley in hot salad oil until garlic is slightly browned. Add tomatoes and seasonings. Cover and cook slowly about 15 minutes, stirring occasionally.
Force mixture through sieve. Add sauce and cheese to hot spaghetti and mix well. Serve at once. Serves 6.

Sometimes you may cook more of some macaroni product than you can use immediately. How to store the leftovers? Simply put them in the refrigerator, in a covered dish. How to reheat them? Rinse them in water, drain thoroughly, and heat in a sauce.

A real meal with macaroni? Try it, and you'll be convinced!

"Date Conscious"? You'd Better Be--

Here is a list of those ration dates, which make calendar-watchers of all local housewives, motorists, or, in fact, anyone who wishes to eat, drive his car, or buy an occasional pair of shoes.

- October 31—shoe stamp 18 (in War Ration Book One) was to have expired but OPA extends expiration date indefinitely.
- November 1—Book Three "airplane" series stamp No. 1 became valid; good for one pair of shoes until further notice.
- January 1, 1944—green stamps G, H, and J (Book Four) became valid for purchase of processed foods.
- January 16—sugar stamp No. 30 in War Ration Book Four became valid and will be good for buying 5 pounds of sugar through the end of March.
- January 22—A gasoline coupons became valid, good through March 21.
- January 23, 1944—brown stamps V became valid (Book Three) for meats, etc.
- January 30, 1944—brown stamps W became valid for meats, etc. (Book Three).
- February 1—green stamps K, L, M, good for purchase of processed foods became valid, will be good through March 20 (Book Four).
- February 6, 1944—brown stamps X became valid (Book Three).
- February 13, 1944—brown stamps Y became valid to use in purchase of meats, etc. (Book Three).
- February 20, 1944—brown stamps Z became valid (Book Three).
- February 20, 1944—green stamps G, H, and J (Book Four) for buying processed foods expire.
- February 26, 1944—brown stamps V, W, and X expire.
- February 27—begin use of red and blue rationing tokens for change.
- February 27—blue stamps A, B, C, D, E (Book Four) to be used with ration tokens come into use for processed foods.
- February 27—red stamps A, B, C, (10 point value each) in Book Four become valid, good through May 20, for meats, fats, cheese, butter.
- February 29, 1944—deadline for inspection of tires for B gasoline book holders.
- March 15—deadline for filing income tax returns; earlier filing is desirable.
- March 20, 1944—brown stamps Y and Z (Book Three) expire.
- March 20—green stamps K, L, M, Book Four, for processed foods, expire.
- March 21—gasoline coupons A No. 10 expire.
- March 30, 1944—deadline for inspection of tires for A book holders.
- March 31—sugar stamp No. 30 for 5 pounds of sugar expires March 31.

30 DAYS' NOTICE ON STAMP 18

The public will be given 30 days' notice, should it become necessary to terminate Shoe Ration Stamp 18. This announcement was made recently by OPA to "kill" scare-buying rumors that the validity period of Stamp 18 might be cancelled with only 24 hours' notice to consumers.

BROWN POINTS FOR WASTE FATS

For every pound of fat a housewife turns in to her meat dealer or other fat salvager, she receives two meat points, beginning December 13. "But most important," Herbert M. Faust, director of WPB's Salvage division said, "within a month the fat will be transformed into war materials and on the way to the fighting fronts." He reminded housewives to save the grease from turkeys, geese, ducks, and chickens, for the manufacture of war products.

CANNING SUGAR NOW AVAILABLE

Housewives may now get 5 pounds of canning sugar by using Stamp No. 40 in War Ration Book Four. OPA has announced, and additional canning sugar later will be available on application to local boards. Stamp No. 40 will be good 13 months, through February 28, 1945.

Let's All Back The Attack

These Volcanoes Are Edible

YOU'LL find it easy to follow the instructions below and make a company dessert that will surprise and delight. If you can't get cinnamon red-hots at your store, use some other strongly flavored candies or spice up your apple sauce in your favorite way.

As for the whipping cream, well, if that is not available, beat one cup of chilled light cream with two tablespoons powdered sugar until frothy. Add one teaspoon lemon juice and beat until stiff. It's best to have the bowl and beater thoroughly chilled for this process. Cream from the top of a bottle of rich, fresh milk, which has stood in the refrigerator for 48 hours, may also be used in this same manner.

Now try your edible volcanoes.

Volcano Rennet-Custard

Apple Sauce:
1 cup stiff apple sauce
2 tablespoons cinnamon red-hots
Whites of 2 eggs
Whipping cream

Set out 4 or 5 nappies or dessert glasses. Heat apple sauce with cinnamon red-hots until dissolved (5 minutes). Cool. Beat the whites of eggs until stiff and dry. Add apple sauce mixture, 2 tablespoons at a time to egg whites. Beat until stiff. Heap apple sauce whip in dessert glasses in the shape of volcano with cone in top (1). Have the top slightly higher than top of dish. Pour rennet-custard around (2).

Note: To make a good stiff apple sauce, choose tart cooking apples such as Jonathans. Five good-sized apples make about 1 quart when peeled, cored and sliced. Add to them $\frac{1}{4}$ cup water, cover closely, and cook about 20 minutes. After the first 5 minutes, shake the pan vigorously rather than stir it, to prevent sticking. When apples are soft, add $\frac{1}{4}$ cup sugar and whip with a spoon to produce a sauce. If the sauce is not stiff enough to remain slightly heaped up even while hot, place it in a shallow pan in a very slow oven, and cook until sufficiently dried out, stirring occasionally.

Rennet-Custard:

1 package vanilla rennet powder
1 pint milk, not canned

Measure 1 pint (2 cups) cold milk, (not canned) into saucepan. Warm slowly, stirring constantly. Test a drop on inside of wrist frequently. When COMFORTABLY warm (110° F.) not hot, remove at once from stove. Stir contents of package into milk briskly until dissolved — not over one minute. Pour at once, while still liquid, around apple sauce volcano. Do not move until firm — about 10 minutes. Chill. Just before serving, drop a puff of whipped cream into the "crater" of each volcano (3), and serve immediately (4).

To the People of this Community

YOU CAN AFFORD IT

You can afford to buy Extra War Bonds during this Fourth War Loan Drive.

Everyone in this community knows incomes are higher than ever before — that both workers and farmers have more cash than ever before. Everyone knows that more than one member of hundreds of families are income earners — and everyone knows that increases in wages and salaries have far outstripped rising prices, and increased taxes. You can afford to buy Extra War Bonds.

As a matter of fact, you can't afford NOT to buy Extra War Bonds. If you spend your money for needless, scarce goods, you are increasing prices — if you want to help win the war you can't afford NOT to buy War Bonds. If you want to help that boy in the service, you can't afford NOT to buy Extra Bonds and if you want a gilt-edged investment for your own future security, you can't afford NOT to buy Extra War Bonds.

Don't just do the expected — buy All the Bonds you can.

THE EDITOR.

Opera Association Announces Two Events

Two events of major importance will be presented by the Opera association in the War Memorial Opera house the weekend of Washington's birthday.

The first of these will be Mia Slavenska, famous prima ballerina and her dance ensemble in the first appearance of this organization here Sunday afternoon, February 20. This will be followed Tuesday evening, February 22, by Richard Crooks, popular tenor of the Metropolitan and William Primrose, said to be one of the great violinists of today.

Although this is the first appearance here of Slavenska at the head of her own company, she is not unknown to dance audiences in San Francisco, as she was formerly one of the most popular members of the Ballet Russe de Monte Carlo. In this she is remembered for her work in Swan Lake, Giselle, Gaite Parisienne, Scheherazade, Sylphides, and the Nutcracker.

Some of the stars of her group are David Tihmar, formerly of the Ballet Russe de Monte Carlo and more recently of the musical comedy "Oklahoma" and Jack Gansert, star of the famous Joos ballet.

The concert of Crooks and Primrose recalls the artistic success of their program here just a year ago. Crooks program will include arias from his favorite operatic roles, songs from the classics and moderns. Primrose has an extensive repertoire of classical and modern music.

Tickets for both Mia Slavenska and the Crooks-Primrose concert are now on sale at the Opera box office, Normandy lane, City of Paris, EXbrook 8585.

QUESTIONS—ANSWERS

about the

NAVY SEABEES

Q. What are the educational qualifications for getting into the Seabees?

A. There are no specific educational requirements. Seabees are chosen primarily on the basis of practical experience in their trade.

Q. Are non-citizens accepted?

A. No, only native-born or naturalized citizens.

Q. Can a WAVE's husband join the Seabees?

A. Yes. A woman whose husband is in the Seabees, however, cannot join the WAVES, although girls who join the WAVES may marry Navy men after indoctrination.

Q. What are Seabee "Specials"?

A. Seabee Specials, often known as Stevedore Battalions, are men who perform the various functions connected with loading and unloading of ships. Usually they are former employees of steamship and stevedoring companies, but the Navy has a training ship at Camp Perry, Virginia, where unskilled men are trained for this work.

READING & WRITING

BY Edwin Searer and Robin McKown

"Without American machines the United Nations never could have won the war," Stalin said in his toast at the Teheran Conference. He was saying, in effect, that without Lend-Lease the war could not have been won.

The word "Lend-Lease" has become part of our national vocabulary, but how many understand just how it operates? A book that explains it in clear and forthright language is "Lend-Lease—Weapon for Victory" by Edward R. Stettinius, Jr., who in August, 1941, was appointed Administrator of Lend-Lease, which position he held until he was made Under Secretary of State in September 1943.

In faraway India, a bearded Hindu turns out parts for guns in a factory, with the help of American precision tools. An English housewife uses powdered eggs, sent by America, to whip up a cake for her family. In a Soviet war plant, power is supplied by American electric generating equipment. A Lend-Lease tank, manned by Australians, attacks the Japanese in New Guinea. In China, while the Burma Road was being built, a Lend-Lease mission set up first-aid stations and hospitals to care for the workers, sick with malaria and malnutrition.

All over the world, machines, munitions, gasoline, food, clothes, drugs, and many other products have been and are being sent to the Allied nations under the most extensive plan of its kind ever put into execution. Mr. Stettinius' book tells a thrilling story, and one that all Americans should know and take pride in.

The Book-of-the-Month Club announces a dual selection for March: Ludwig Bemelmans' light-hearted novel of pre-war Paris, "Now I Lay Me Down to Sleep" and "Crazy Weather" by Charles L. McNichols. "Crazy Weather" is the story of two boys on an Indian reservation in the Southwest, and Dorothy Canfield, who is one of the Club's judges, comments that it is highly reminiscent of Mark Twain's stories.

Soviet correspondent Konstantin Simonov relates in "No Quarter" that one day a member of the special section of the Northern Army said to him happily, "There will soon be something interesting for you. We've captured three German officers." "What are their ranks?" he asked. "I don't know yet."

"Are they still with the regiment?" "No," the informant seemed embarrassed, "the fact is that these prisoners haven't arrived at all. . . . They were captured forty miles behind the German lines. . . . Fifteen of our frontier guards have penetrated that far and it is they who have taken the prisoners. They radioed that they are bringing us three officers and that they will cross the lines in two or three days." Three days later, on schedule, the prisoners were brought in.

QUALITY - SERVICE - CONVENIENCE

With ceilings effectively standardizing prices of nearly every food item, many people are too apt to consider there is small choice of markets left them. However, selling price is not the only factor in food costs.

Here at the Westlake Market, quality and service have always been our biggest concern in caring for the needs of Daly City households. And Westlake customers are still assured of getting the best grades of food items, at the lowest prices at which it is possible to sell them. Our service includes the added help that only a neighborly store can give.

Our convenient location is still another factor which can save you actual money, as well as time and worry. Drop in at our handy corner regularly—you'll like it.

MAKE IT EASY FOR YOURSELF!

Remember the days before rationing? All you needed to know was the price of meat, and whether or not you had enough money to buy what you wanted. Then came the meat shortage, and some days you stood in line for hours, only to find everything sold out when it came your turn.

Next you were given an allotment of ration stamps which had to be turned in on meat purchases. But still the dealers' supplies were short, quality was doubtful, prices went up and up, and you had to take what you could get.

But that's ALL changed now—at least, if you shop at the Farmer's Meat Company store.

For we're on a strictly "quality meat, low price, cheerful service" basis. We again offer you a wide choice in meats of the high quality upon which we built this business, and at prices competitively low. Our friendly, helpful service will do much to take the "sting" out of your food rationing problems.
